

EMISSIONS: Improvements in hen housing and manure management have contributed to energy savings and emission reductions in egg production.

2010 egg production has

71% lower greenhouse gas emissions than in 1960

The amount of CO₂ reduced is equivalent to taking

5.2 million cars off the road for a year

Brought to you by
America's Egg Farmers

For more information, please visit www.IncredibleEgg.org