Eggs are a Nutrition Powerhouse.

➤ Eggs can support any school meal program as an all-natural source of high-quality protein.¹

Cognitive Function

Eggs contain nutrients that are important for brain health, such as lutein and choline! Lutein is an antioxidant that supports normal brain function and choline affects the areas of the brain responsible for memory and life-long learning ability.^{2,3}

Nutrient Package

One large egg contains varying amounts of 13 essential vitamins and minerals, 6 grams of high-quality protein, all for 70 calories. Plus, eggs are one of the only foods that naturally contain vitamin D, which is especially important for school-aged children for calcium absorption and bone building.^{4,5}

Protein + Satiety

The protein in eggs can help promote fullness and reduce hunger. One study found that students who ate eggs for breakfast, compared to a high carb breakfast, were less hungry throughout the morning.⁶
